

PAYPAL ADDS MORE LANGUAGES AND EXPANDS TO 190 MARKETS WORLDWIDE

--Customers Can Now View PayPal.com in Simplified Chinese, Spanish, and French

Singapore – May 11, 2007 – PayPal today announced customers using PayPal.com will now be able to view the site in simplified Chinese as well as Spanish and French. In addition, customers in 87 new markets can now send money online with PayPal.

Customers using PayPal.com will be able to view the site in simplified Chinese, as well as in Spanish, and French. The addition of these new languages will enable Chinese, Spanish, and French speaking PayPal users to pay for items safely, easily and conveniently in the language they prefer. Customers using an Internet browser in any of these three languages will be able to choose to view PayPal.com in one of these languages when they first visit PayPal.com.

PayPal also announced that residents in 87 new markets can now use PayPal in their local markets to send money online using their credit card. These new markets include: Albania, Algeria, Angola, Antigua and Barbuda, Armenia, Azerbaijan Republic, Belize, Benin, Bhutan, Bolivia, Bosnia and Herzegovina, Bulgaria, Burkina Faso, Burundi, Cambodia, Chad, Colombia, Comoros, Democratic Republic of Congo, Republic of Congo, Cook Islands, Djibouti, Dominica, El Salvador, Eritrea, Ethiopia, Faroe Islands, Gabon Republic, Gambia, Greenland, Grenada, Guatemala, Guinea, Guinea-Bissau, Guyana, Honduras, Kazakhstan, Kenya, Kiribati, Kuwait, Kyrgyzstan, Laos, Lesotho, Madagascar, Malawi, Mali, Marshall Islands, Mauritania, Mauritius, Federated States of Micronesia, Mongolia, Morocco, Mozambique, Nauru, Nepal, Nicaragua, Niger, Niue, Norfolk Island, Oman, Palau, Panama, Papua New Guinea, Peru, Romania, Rwanda, Saint Vincent and the Grenadines, San Marino, Sao Tome and Principe, Saudi Arabia, Senegal, Seychelles, Sierra Leone, Somalia, Sri Lanka, Suriname, Svalbard and Jan Mayen, Swaziland, Tajikistan, Tanzania, Turkmenistan, Tuvalu, Uganda, Vanuatu, Vatican City, Yemen and Zambia. “We are thrilled to expand our services to a total 190 markets worldwide, and introduce these three new languages to the PayPal.com site” said Dana Stalder, senior vice president, PayPal. “By enabling customers to view PayPal.com in simplified Chinese, Spanish and French, we now offer customers in 46 markets the ability to transact in their native language, making domestic and cross border trading easier and more convenient for millions of customers around the globe. By offering PayPal.com in Chinese alone, we are able to reach millions of people who speak Chinese as their first language.”

PayPal currently has 143 million accounts globally. In the first quarter of 2007, PayPal’s total payment volume – or the total value of transactions -- was over US$11 billion (SG$17.6 billion). The expansion into new markets helps PayPal customers trade domestically, and helps sellers expand cross border trading.
